Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Nelly after her final round. Take us through the week.

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, it was an interesting week for sure. I don't think I had my best stuff, but played some solid golf here and there.

Definitely didn't capitalize on the par-5s. I had a lot of irons in my hands and came out with pars. A little disappointing there.

Overall happy with the way I played coming off last week and my energy levels.

Q. Getting some well-deserved time off before the Asia Swing. How much are you looking forward to this time off?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I think I have three weeks, but it flies by. Any single time I get to spend a couple nights at home it feels nice.

Q. Last one: What did you see this week that you're looking to build upon over this break?

NELLY KORDA: Overall everything in general. Just kind of fine tune every part of my game and hopefully I can do that going into Asia.
