Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Haeran Ryu after her final round at the Kroger Queen City Championship presented by P&G. Another solid round. Just take us through the final day here in Cincinnati.

HAERAN RYU: Today my play start is really bad, but on the front nine I got one eagle again, so that's good one.

And for the back nine I hit five in a row birdies after the 9 hole, so, yeah, was a strong finish. That's good, yeah.

Q. Exactly. As you go into your title defense next week, how happy are you just to be in a good place with your game going back to a place you really like?

HAERAN RYU: Yeah, I'm really exciting, because these days my shot is really good, but I miss short putt couple time this tournament.

Yeah, just preparing for next week. Yeah, I can't wait to go there.

Q. What are you expecting for defending your first title next week? What are you excited about defending your first title next week?

HAERAN RYU: I can remember every hole in that golf course, so...

But yesterday I got one email from the LPGA. Last winter in Arkansas is a little cold and snow and grass is a little bad as last year's.

But it's the same course, and I just can't wait to go there. Yeah, it's more accurate shot and more accurate putt.

Q. Just last question: As we're wrapping up the season, almost done. How are you feeling with this finish? How does it help you the rest of the season?

HAERAN RYU: Finally we start Asian Swing and I'm go back to Korea tournament, so, yeah, I love the Asian Swing because I'm a Korean and Asian player.

These days my scores is really good and then, yeah, I just want to enjoy Asian Swing.
