Q. Nelly, an up and down day but really highlight there at the par-5 16th, the eagle. How would you describe the round overall?

NELLY KORDA: Obviously a little upset with my last putt on the last hole. That's just really unfortunate. Other than that, I hit some really solid shots. Made some good putts too, but unfortunately did not make the last one.

That stinks.

Q. You said earlier this week you worked really hard on your iron play coming into this week. How would you assess where your game is overall as you head into the final round tomorrow?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, pretty good. Losing my driver out a little bit right on some of the first few holes today and even yesterday. Going to see if I can get that dialed in. It's definitely a little demanding off the tee here with a lot of the bunkers and tree.

Once I'm in position I feel pretty confident with my iron shots. At the end of the day you got to hole the putts.
