Quick Quotes

Q. Hye-Jin, a 64 today. What was the game plan and the mindset going into today?

HYE-JIN CHOI: Overall my swing and putt was better than first and second and third round. When I was warming up in the morning everything felt much better than the first three rounds.

Putt went well and everything is work today.

Q. What was it about the warmup today that you realized everything was clicking?

HYE-JIN CHOI: I would say nothing special, but I tried to more relax and then got a better result.

Q. What were some of the most memorable birdies out there for you?

HYE-JIN CHOI: Last one, 18 hole, short putt. Was less than five feet and it was tricky and I made it. That was thrill, yeah.

Q. What do you take away from a round like this getting ready for the BMW Ladies Championship?

HYE-JIN CHOI: I wasn't sure until yesterday, but after the round today I got the feeling and I'm looking forward to playing next week.

Q. What will you focus on in your swing or prep to get ready for that event?

HYE-JIN CHOI: Well, I would say the one thing that would be look relax. If I try to do something, won't go as good as I expect it.

And then relaxation, I would say relax.
