Trophy Presentation

Q. Welcome to the prize presentation. Delighted to welcome Mr. Yao Fei, the general director of Buick sales and marketing. Thank you very much indeed, Mr. Yao Fei, and I know you have a few words you would like to say.

MR. YAO FEI: Congratulations Angel Yin for winning on the 2023 Buick LPGA Shanghai, and it's a great honor to witness your perfect performance this week.

Looking forward to meeting you again at the 2024 Buick LPGA Shanghai.

Q. And it's the champion. Angel, you were absolutely amazing out there. How are you going to celebrate?

ANGEL YIN: Well, I want to go watch tennis, but I think to get tickets a little bit hard, because I watched tennis yesterday and I was quite inspired.

But probably hang out with some friends. Been doing that all week so good thing I've been doing it.

Q. You can hang out with friends and also with this quite beautiful trophy. You are our winner for this year. Mr. Fei, if you would please pass the beautiful trophy to our winner in 2023 in a sudden death playoff, let's hear it for Angel Yin. (Applause.)
