Q. Here with Yealimi after the third round of the TOTO Japan Classic. Talk about how it went out there today in that final group.

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, it was a bit of a disappointing back nine, but I started off nice with a few birdies on the front. Was hitting it good; putting it well.

Then I had an unfortunate double on 11. I think that really set me back. Overall great week, and happy to finish this Asia Swing on a positive note.

Q. I was going to say, two Top 5 finishes in this four weeks. How proud are you of this stretch?

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, it's just been a blast. I've been really tired, but being in contention has been really nice. I had a hard few years and this is a nice way to finish this year; very positive.

Q. What kind of things are you going to take away specifically in your golf game from the past few weeks?

YEALIMI NOH: Definitely my ball striking has gotten a lot better and more consistent, and my putting has gotten a lot better. Always room for improvement.

Yeah, just keep doing that and hope for a good year next year, too, or good finish. One more.

Q. You're such a young player. Being in contention like this, what do you think that teaches you?

YEALIMI NOH: Yeah, just, I mean, it's always different being in contention. Even if the first few days are going great, stress-free, it's always a little extra on the last day.

I think if I just keep putting myself in this position it'll just get easier.

Q. Two weeks after I believe.

YEALIMI NOH: Yes.

Q. How do you keep building the momentum for CME?

YEALIMI NOH: Well, next week I'm not going to do anything but get a lot of rest and get my energy back up for CME, and keep doing the same thing.
