Q. Here with Caroline Inglis after her first round at the Blue Bay LPGA. 5-under round. Walk us through your round and what you saw.

CAROLINE INGLIS: Yeah, it was kind of interesting. I started out just not hitting the ball very well on the front nine, and then made a birdie on 8 I think, and then the back nine just kind of pulled it together and started making more putts.

I think I made like five birdies in a row, which is nice to end the day.

Q. Very nice.

CAROLINE INGLIS: Yeah.

Q. So those days where you start not hitting it well how do you get out of the funk?

CAROLINE INGLIS: I was just trying to be positive about it and not worry too much, keep doing what I'm doing. Just trying to hit solid shots and, yeah.

Q. And then how do you keep yourself calm on a five-hole birdie streak?

CAROLINE INGLIS: I didn't really notice. I know that sounds -- yeah, I was just trying to hit the shot at hand and I ended up making two really long putts, so that's always nice to see.

Q. I was going to ask if they were close or far away.

CAROLINE INGLIS: Two were 30 feet, so that's always fun.

Q. How nice is it to see good golf like this so early in the year?

CAROLINE INGLIS: It's good. It's only one round. It's a long week, so just keep doing what I'm doing. It's nice to see hard work paying off.
