Q. Okay, here with Mi Hyang after her second round at the Black Desert Championship. Really great round today. What did you think from your perspective?

MI HYANG LEE: So it was -- I'm really good feeling with my golf swing now and then my ball striking is really good.

But was a little struggling my short putt yesterday, so I missed one green, but still 32 putts. So was a little struggle and stress day yesterday.

Today was a little less wind and I think better temperature as well, less hot, so my putt was a little better.

Then I made a lot of middle putt as well, so I think was good like turning the momentum as well. And also I made eagle, shot eagle, so it was great to be aggressive and more positive during the tournament.

Q. What has been your approach this whole week, just a different layout we have out here.

MI HYANG LEE: Yeah.

Q. How many drivers are you hitting?

MI HYANG LEE: So almost within one club longer, and then we had a lot of walk and I feel like I'm just walking on the jogging park already.

But it's like every hole the views are gorgeous, so really like hard to concentration on the target either. So, yeah, was a great experience for me.

Q. Talk about your ball striking. Is that something you worked on a lot Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday before starting?

MI HYANG LEE: I took just one day off, Monday, because I was a little tired from the last week. Actually just last week my ball striking was really good, so just I tried to still
