BLACK DESERT
CHAMPIONSHIP

very well, and I definitely going to come back next year.

Q. Here with Ronni after the Black Desert Championship here. Just awesome week you had. After yesterday and then today's round, what are your thoughts?

RUONING YIN: I think my game is pretty solid. Even this week I play 70 good holes. I made a triple on the first day and then a double on 16 today. But overall, I think my game is really solid.

Q. And just these past two weeks you've had some really solid golf. Just what do you think has really stuck out to you, what parts of your game?

RUONING YIN: Definitely my putting I think. Putting and approach shots. I've been working on my putting for a little bit. Like a little bit. (Making hand gesture.)

So I'm just really happy to see my hard work pay off.

Q. And you and your caddie have some great banter out there. How has he helped the past couple weeks stay in the moment and stay present?

RUONING YIN: Definitely Dave helped me a lot, and especially he was keep telling me you don't have to be perfect. You just have to like just play your shot and don't try to be perfect every time.

Because I was just, yeah, I just tried to be perfect every shot, but you cannot. Golf, it's just such a hard game, and just stay in the present and one shot at a time.

Q. Being here in Utah this week, it's been a great week. What makes you so excited to come back to this course and this venue potentially?

RUONING YIN: I mean, I had such a fun week. This course is really beautiful and interesting setup.

But overall, I love this course. I think this course suits me

... when all is said, we're done.®
