Quick Quotes

Q. Okay, here with Esther after final round of the Black Desert. Awesome week. You were toward the top of the leaderboard for most of it. What are your thoughts after the final round here?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: Yeah, played really solid all week. Really good today, too. Started out great on the front nine and then couldn't quite keep up on the back.

Haeran played amazing and she really deserved to win it today.

Q. And we talked yesterday about that pressure, you loving that pressure. How did you thrive off it today and just love being in the last group?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: Yeah, it was so much fun. I mean, to be in the last group, to really be in it, to hole some nice putts, hit some nice shots, it just feels great. I've enjoyed it and I hope I have some more to come.

Q. Talk about that mindset. How do you approach today? What was your kind of key thoughts that you had going into today's round?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: I mean, I knew I would have to shoot something pretty low to have a chance, so you kind of have to go out there and hit the shots.

You can't really shy away from the situation. Yeah, you just don't know really what's going to happen on this golf course and you just have to be aggressive from time to time, yeah, see what happens in the end.

Q. After your performance this week, how excited are you to potentially come back here next year and take another stab at it, just how beautiful this course is and everything?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: It's an amazing week. Black Desert Resort has been taking amazing care of all the players and I'm really looking forward to coming back. Definitely one of the best golf courses we play all year, so it's been a great.

Q. Last question: What are your big overarching takeaways from this week, I guess?

ESTHER HENSELEIT: Yeah, that I can shoot four consecutive really low rounds and make a lot of birdies.
