Quick Quotes

Q. So you how did it feel being in the mix?

IN GEE CHUN: I couldn't make the putt, but I really happy to play here. So I just want to say thank you to the greenskeepers and the LPGA. They have done a wonderful job together under the bad weather.

So I really enjoy the play on Sunday.

Q. How did it feel to play really well the week overall?

IN GEE CHUN: I think it was good comeback. I got more confidence from here. Also I'm ready to go U.S. Women's Open.

Q. Is that your next event?

IN GEE CHUN: Yeah, next event.

Q. Obviously you have good memories from that event.

IN GEE CHUN: Uh-huh.

Q. What will to feel like to play in that again as the former champion?

IN GEE CHUN: So 2015, U.S. Women's Open was -- it was my dreams come true so I can play on the tour, LPGA Tour right now.

So always feel little different than normal tournaments, but I want try enjoy this, more pressure from there.

Like this, yeah.

Q. What do you think was the best part of your game this week?

IN GEE CHUN: I don't know, because I think my putter is getting better because make some putts from up there, but still I want to say putter.

Q. Okay.
