MIKA MIYAZATO: No.

Q. You made four consecutive birdies on the front

--

MIKA MIYAZATO: Yeah, front nine, yeah.

Q. What was working, putting?

MIKA MIYAZATO: Like more focused on one shot at a time. I talked to -- I spoke last night with my mental coach, so like the last three months, four months, it's not enjoy golf, so I tried to I enjoy golf this week, and he said, one shot at a game, more detail, so I tried more detail today, so that's why it works good.

Q. How will you feel about going into tomorrow with the lead?

MIKA MIYAZATO: Very excited, because it's tough right now, but last couple months not so much felt, so I just want to keep my -- how do you say? Try to be more aggressive the next day.

Q. You had a top-10 finish here several years back, but I don't think you've played here the last three years.

MIKA MIYAZATO: Yeah, three, four years.

Q. Did it just not fit your schedule?

MIKA MIYAZATO: Schedule, yeah.

Q. Do you remember the last time you led a tournament at the end of the day?

MIKA MIYAZATO: Last tournament?

Q. Last time you were in the lead at a tournament?

MIKA MIYAZATO: I don't know.

Q. Team Japan going into UL International Crown looks pretty good. Do you feel like you're playing really well right now?

MIKA MIYAZATO: Right now is very well, yes.

Q. Do you feel good about their chances, about a potential win at UL International Crown?

MIKA MIYAZATO: I can't say, but it's a team competition, so it's pretty difficult.

Q. But you have good players.

MIKA MIYAZATO: Yes.
