TRAVELERS
CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Keegan when you earned your rookie TOUR card in 2011 you said you weren't dreaming about the majors or the Playoffs or money. I was dreaming about getting to play right here at the Travelers Championship. What does it mean to now be a winner at your hometown event?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: You know, this is for all the kids that grew up in New England. Got to sit through the winters and watch other people play golf.

I just am so proud to win this tournament. Travelers and everybody involved puts on a first-class tournament. It's been like this for a decade, and I'm so happy to be the winner here.

Q. You weren't much older than your two sons when you came here with your family for the first time. Can you put into words what this full-circle moment means? As you said, your kids now know what dad does for a living; they're old enough.

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Yeah, it's unbelievable. My wife, Jillian, I love her so much. She's the best. I'm so happy to have my family here. They're my lucky charm and I love them so much.

Q. You're a massive New England's sports fan. All of these fans, all of these chants of New England are now here for you. How have they helped propel you this week?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: My goodness, it's been unbelievable. I'm so lucky and thankful to be from this New England area. I just can't believe it. This seems like a dream.

Q. Lastly, it took a lot of fight. You had to go extremely low to get it done. Coming off a missed cut where it was putt-putt with the kids for you last weekend, what did you find this week to get this one done?

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Well, I had my coach, Darren May came in and he tuned me right up. Something clicked on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and I played great up until the last five or six holes. Lucky enough I had a big enough lead it coast home.

Q. It was incredible to watch. Celebrate with these fans. I know they are going to be cheering for you until this time next year. Keegan Bradley, you just won the Travelers Championship.

KEEGAN BRADLEY: Thank you so much.
