Quick Quotes

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: It's a weird event for us. We do this once a year. It's one of the bigger events for us to do it, and because of those things you just have to try your best to stay present and not get ahead of yourself.

Q. (Inaudible.)

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Once you get into some sort of flow I'd say it is inside your head and worry about your golf. My mind wandered, but it's more just focusing and trying to stay in the moment.

Q. (Inaudible.)

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: No, I honestly don't think I have. Obviously this place, obviously the greens have the SubAir and it was able to dry out, but there was a lot of standing water on the property and it was very wet.

Q. (Inaudible.)

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: I mean, just really the biggest difference was to me, I just really put the emphasis on hitting the fairway. I just really worried about hitting the fairway on every hole. Sort of started off each hole as its own tournament and was just trying to put it in the fairway because once you have ball in hand, the greens are a little bit more receptive than normal and you have to be aggressive.

Q. How much did last week (indiscernible)?

XANDER SCHAUFFELE: Yeah, no, for sure. I haven't had -- I've played well here before, but I haven't had the best series of playoff events strung together, so it's a goal of mine to be consistent and play well every week, and it definitely helpful to come in here in decent form.
