Q. What an outstanding match. I think at one point they were 10 under, you guys were 9, and it came down to a couple of pars here at the end. Sebastian, this guy was magical from off the green at the par-3 14th. That kind of got you guys going. Big way to come up with a half point.

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: Absolutely. We just kind of kept in touch with them as much as we could. On 14, Sungjae made an awesome birdie. They responded back. Then on 15, he made another awesome birdie. Then they responded back.

It was a ton of fun. It was a good match, good golf.

Q. Sungjae, you guys never quit in this match. How satisfying is this to get the half point?

SUNGJAE IM: I feel glad that we didn't give up a point. We played too well to give up any points. So happy to come up with half a point there.

Q. You fought back to get some points, a half, on the board. How satisfied are you with the comeback?

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: Super satisfied. It was a really tough match. Sam was making some crazy putts here and there. They got momentum. They got even some luck on their side.

We just had to dig deep, keep pushing, and trying to get a couple holes and ended up with a tie.

Q. Into tomorrow, it's a big day, double session. You're going to be trailing the United States. What attitude do you need to bring to the golf course?

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: Make or break. I feel like tomorrow is the big day. We have to keep in touch for Sunday, and we have a lot of gap to recover from.
