Quick Quotes

Q. What's the lowest round you've ever shot, 18 holes?

LUDVIG ABERG: Ever, 18 holes? 13-under.

Q. What do you think you'll have to do tomorrow?

LUDVIG ABERG: Probably something similar. I'm not sure. I haven't really thought about it too much, so I guess we'll have to see a little bit whenever the guys are finished tonight and then see what we have to do tomorrow.

Q. Was the wind making it trickier, or is it the same as it's been all week?

LUDVIG ABERG: I thought it was a little bit easier than yesterday. Obviously it wasn't as much as yesterday. It was weird around 13, and it just completely switched from what it was supposed to be. We just have to play a little bit by ear on the last couple of holes, but because it wasn't as much, it was a little bit easier.

Q. Have you played this course before this week?

LUDVIG ABERG: Yes. I had played the Junior PLAYERS a couple years ago.

Q. And you enjoyed it?

LUDVIG ABERG: Oh, absolutely. I thought it was great. Obviously it was a little bit different. We played in August, I think, so everything was Bermuda.

But it was great, and AJGA put up a great tournament, and it's fun to be back.
