Patrick Cantlay

Quick Quotes

Q. Just assess the day, if you could, please, Patrick?

PATRICK CANTLAY: I played really well. Everything I did I think, I think just good. I hit the ball really well. I had a good up-and-down there on 7, just didn't get all the putts that I needed to go in. I didn't get them to go in today.

Q. You said every day you hit it pretty well.

PATRICK CANTLAY: Yeah, even today I rolled a bunch of good putts in the middle of the round and I just couldn't get them to go in. Some rounds some weeks are kind of like that. I made a bunch early in the round and I hit my lines all day. I just wasn't able to get them to fall.

Q. What's your biggest takeaway from this week?

PATRICK CANTLAY: All parts of my game are really good and I really love Riviera, so I'm going to go down there next week, get rested over the next couple days, and know that my game's in a good spot.

Q. What did you think about that new tee at 10?

PATRICK CANTLAY: I don't like it a much as the other hole. I think it's a little gimmicky, but it's fine.

Q. What you did you hit there and did you play that in the U.S. Open at all?

PATRICK CANTLAY: I don't think so. I hit a hybrid and a wedge and missed about a 10-footer.
