Quick Quotes

Q. Obviously a very nice finish to the day. Just some comments on the week.

PADRAIG HARRINGTON: Yeah, it's not a golf course that I particularly feel I have an advantage on, so I'm happy to be in there at the end of the week and in contention. Certainly missed a few putts the first two days.

Today I had a good day. A couple of tee shots in the left-to-right wind coming home I hit dead straight down the left didn't come back, so not unhappy. They weren't so much bad swings, they just weren't perfect, either. But the wind didn't do what we expected.

I did make a bit of a meal of the chip-out on the par-4. I was afraid of hitting a tree in the fairway and not getting it out twice. So look, yeah, the fact I had a good finish, I don't regret maybe that double as it is. Maybe tonight I will, though.

Q. How about the last hole? Did I hear you say you hit your second shot out of a divot?

PADRAIG HARRINGTON: No, I hit a 6-iron and it pitched in a pitch mark on the green and took a really funny bounce. We couldn't understand -- like it was straight at the pin, and it kicked 15 feet right of it. So we didn't know why. But obviously I'm better off being 15 feet than where I could have been.
