Quick Quotes

Q. Brian, looked like another solid round out there for you today. How would you evaluate how you played?

BRIAN HARMAN: Yeah, I played really good. Just didn't make a lot of putts. I'll putt a little bit and see if I can't make a few tomorrow.

Q. I know you were out there on the range last night working on some stuff. Is there anything specifically you were working on?

BRIAN HARMAN: Yeah, my iron game was really good the first day and not good yesterday and better today. Yeah, I was just trying to tighten up my iron play a little bit.

Q. As far as looking at the leaderboard, do you got any goals for tomorrow as far as where you could end up?

BRIAN HARMAN: No, not really. I just try to shoot the lowest score I can. See what happens.

Q. On 5 you were kind of -- third shot you were chipping from off a hill and then the birdie putt was left short. Was that one shot you wish you had back?

BRIAN HARMAN: Yeah, I made the birdie on 1, and hit some good putts, yeah, but that's one of those ones where you know that if you can get that one, you feel like it's going to keep rolling. Yeah, I've just got to hit better putts. I just pulled that one a little bit and then pushed the one on 8, and I just couldn't make them.

Q. You were playing with Matt, you guys are, I think, both from Sea Island. What's that like to be paired with him and playing -- it looked like you guys are friendly on the course.

BRIAN HARMAN: Yeah, Matt and I have played a bunch of golf out here. He's done it for a long time, so he is one of my favorite guys to play with out here. He's obviously extremely talented and knows how to do it.

I've leaned on Matt for advice from time to time. Yeah, Matt is great. He's fun to play with.

Q. Is there a hole on this course that really fits your eye, like a favorite hole, one that kind of gives you fits?

BRIAN HARMAN: I really like 13. I just think it's a perfect example of like holes don't have to be 500-yard par-4s to be hard. Then 14 has always given me fits, but it's probably the hardest par-3 we play all year.
