Quick Quotes

Q. If we can get some comments on your day, please.

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, sloppy 2-under I'd call it. Just didn't make much, and a couple hiccups there around the turn, 10 and 11. Got it in the house a couple under, so felt like I played better than that, but reality is I didn't.

Q. What did you do on 10, hit it in the water?

LUCAS GLOVER: Hit it in the water, missed a short one and just screwed it up and then missed the fairway on 11 and screwed that up, too.

Q. Congratulations on the Order of the Palmetto. You live in Jupiter, Florida; is that correct?

LUCAS GLOVER: Mm-hmm.

Q. Are you still supporting the Congaree -- sounds like you're keeping South Carolina close to your heart. What does it mean to you to receive that?

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, I had no idea until the middle of last week. Extreme honor, and look forward to it. But still here to do my job, so enjoy it while I can and then refocus for the weekend.

Q. South Carolina guys have always supported this event. Do you foresee that happening in Myrtle and whoever is available will play if they're from this area?

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, I think so. I hope so. I can't say for sure. I can't speak for anybody else. But yeah, looks like it's going to be a great event, and hopefully we get a good field.

Q. Have you ever played the Dunes Club?

LUCAS GLOVER: I have nod.

Q. I know you've played Myrtle Beach National a lot.

LUCAS GLOVER: Yep. Never played Dunes Club.

Q. Just your thoughts on Myrtle Beach getting an event. Is it overdue, surprising?

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, seems like a great market to have an event. Huge golf market, obviously, so I would think it would be really well supported.

Q. Obviously under the current structure you're hoping to never play there, right, opposite field?

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, I mean, I'm 44, so I don't know how many more years I'll be in the Signature Events, but we'll see.

Q. If you're not in the Signature Events, is that 100 percent a place you would play --

LUCAS GLOVER: I can't answer that. I really have no idea.
