

AT&T Byron Nelson

Thursday, May 11, 2023

McKinney, Texas, USA

TPC Craig Ranch

Luke List

Quick Quotes

Q. Luke, good playing, a 7-under 64. Just an opening comment on your round.

LUKE LIST: Yeah, played nicely. One bogey out there, but made a lot of mid-range putts, which was really nice. Just anytime you can get going a little bit under par, for me lately that hasn't happened a whole lot, so it's nice to get a good round.

Q. I noticed you've got the head pro at The Yards caddying for you. Could you give a little background there? How long has he been -- is this just one week?

LUKE LIST: Yeah, just a call to the bullpen. My caddie is back home in Sweden for a couple weeks and needed to kind of get back and see family, which we had discussed. This is five weeks in a row, which I normally don't do, so that was kind of just an add-in in the schedule to try to get something going to the year.

It's been kind of a struggle, so to have my buddy on the bag was just kind of just real comfortable, and we had a lot of laughs out there, and it was fun just to get some good mojo going.

Q. You guys know each other from Orange County; is that right?

LUKE LIST: Yeah, so he worked out at Virginia Country Club under Jamie Mulligan, my mentor, and we've known each other for 10 plus years. A lot of golf together, a lot of good times. He was in my wedding, and hopefully I'll be in his coming up in the next year or so. Just a good friend, and he was always eager to caddie. He's caddied for a couple other pros. John Mallinger he's caddied for a few times. He's good on the bag, knows what to do, and we're having a good time.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports.

