Quick Quotes

Q. First time at Edgewood. How is your game? How do you like the course so far?

ROBERT SALAH: It looks awesome. I'm about a 10 handicap. Enjoy trying to push it around, have a little fun.

Q. Second go-around as a head coach right now. Do you get to play golf less as a head coach? And how much has your day-to-day changed just in general?

ROBERT SALAH: Just coaching in general, your window, especially if you're in a cold weather state, is probably April to mid-July and it's over. It's not a big window, but with the window we have, we try to enjoy it.

Q. Carnell Tate, one of the best receivers, maybe, in the last 10 years of college football. How has he been adjusting to Tennessee? What would you like to see him so far in training camp?

ROBERT SALAH: He's been doing a great job. For any rookie coming into the league, there's a transition period. There's an adjustment that's got to be made, and he's done a great job attacking his day-to-day responsibilities, and we're going to see how he does.
