

Transcript

Sunday, May 16, 2021

My daddy lies to me:

Q. What did you say?

CHILD: I always feel like he lies to me.

Q. You think daddy lies to you? Why do you think that?

CHILD: Even though he promises me, I feel like he lies to me.

Q. Oh, I'm sorry. How does that make you feel?

CHILD: Sad.

Q. Yeah?

CHILD: I saw the police.

Q. You told the police?

CHILD: No, I saw the police.

Q. Oh, I thought you told the police that daddy was lying to you.

CHILD: No, because they would arrest him before you were even here.

Q. Yeah. Why, because he lied?

CHILD: Whoa, mommy, the police went this way.

Q. Same way we're going?

CHILD: Yeah. They went this way.

Q. Mm hmm.

CHILD: Are you going straight?

Q. I am going straight, yes.

CHILD: Okay, that's better. I thought I saw the police going straight.

Q. Okay. We're okay. We're not doing anything wrong, so we're okay.

CHILD: No, he might arrest you.

Q. For what?

CHILD: For going fast.

Q. Wow, I don't go fast, do I?

CHILD: You should have got me a lollypop, too.

Q. Oh, my gosh, so much stuff.