Quick Quotes

Q. What's really working for you out there?

BRANDON HAGY: Yeah, I think I'm driving the ball well, hitting some approach shots pretty close. The last couple days I've made some putts, as well. So I think there's little bits of each part of my game that have been going well, and I'm just looking to continue that.

Q. (Indiscernible.)

BRANDON HAGY: Yeah, I feel like my short game and putting has been really solid for a while. I think the ball-striking is just little things with kind of my takeaway and kind of halfway back in my backswing that I think has helped it be easier for me to hit all the shots, three-quarter shots, full shots, and that three-quarter shot is something that at times I've struggled in the past with, but this last month or so I feel like it's really been an asset, so that's really big if you can kind of transition something that you think is a little bit average and make it a strength, that's always what you're trying to shoot for.

Q. (Indiscernible.)

BRANDON HAGY: Yeah, for sure. I think I'm going to be in the final group. I'm not sure how many shots back I'll be, but it's definitely within my grasp. I feel like I can hit all the shots that's necessary to get me over the top. But the key is all these guys here can hit those shots, you just have to stay within yourself, and a few bounces here and there go your way, and we'll see what happens.
