workday.

Q. Have you gone through U.S. Open qualifiers before?

ERIC COLE: I've gotten through one.

Q. So you've done, you've attempted how many times, could you remember?

ERIC COLE: Sectionals or just U.S. Open qualifying? 10.

Q. Finals.

ERIC COLE: Finals? Probably maybe five or six.

Q. What attitude do you need to bring to the course on that long day?

ERIC COLE: You need to bring a good attitude. It's a tough day. You don't really know where you stand as you're playing, so you kind of just got to be focused on what you're doing and try and just hit the best shots you can and shoot as low as you can.

Q. You played four rounds on a really challenging golf course. Is that a positive or is that an advantage or not?

ERIC COLE: Well, I haven't played both the courses. I've just played Brookside for tomorrow. But they can't be more difficult than that. So, no matter what, it should hopefully feel a little bit easier and it should take a little stress off some of the shots off the tee and into the greens.
