Quick Quotes

THE MODERATOR: Ryan, still right there. Just a couple comments about today, what you felt good about and anything you're looking forward to tomorrow.

RYAN GERARD: Yeah, I didn't hit it very well at all today. I didn't really make too many putts besides the one on 13, I think. So just a lot of a grind out there today. Course got pretty tough, pretty firm. Greens got really bumpy towards the end, which is going to happen in the afternoon. So just really tried to stay patient, kept myself in it, even though I didn't really have my best game or anything near it.

So looking forward to just hopefully playing a little bit better tomorrow and kind of seeing a few more go in and we'll see how it shakes out.

THE MODERATOR: I know you said that today wasn't your best day, weren't feeling great about it. But, overall, the week, you're still right there. Is the confidence level still kind of got your back, so to speak?

RYAN GERARD: Absolutely. I feel like any time that you're in contention coming down the last round, last however many holes, you've got to play well to get into that situation. So just going to take that in stride and really just trust that we're going to have some good stuff happen tomorrow and just really do my best and everything else is just an added bonus. So we're excited to just go out there and see what happens.
