Quick Quotes

Q. Taylor, great playing, 4-under 67. If we can just get an opening comment on your round.

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Yeah, it was good. I hit the ball very well again like I did the first two days and saw some putts roll in early. A couple nice par saves, and putter kind of kept me in it today.

Q. You've had a nice stretch of golf this summer after returning from your injury. Was this just a continuation of what you've seen the last few weeks?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Yeah, I feel like my game has been pretty good for a couple years, and then coming back after the break, it's just been nice to be playing again. I've had some nice weeks. Last week was kind of an off week, I guess. I didn't play great. But this course is awesome, sets up good for me, and I've been driving it pretty well and hitting my irons well. It's been a great week so far.

Q. How much are you going to be thinking about tomorrow? Obviously implications trying to make it to East Lake. How much do you let that cross your mind tomorrow?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Honestly I don't even know what I have to do to get there. I'm assuming it's top 3 or 4, so a ways away. I'm just going to go out tomorrow and compete and see what I can do. Honestly it's just awesome to be here. I didn't think I'd be here a few months ago, so just going to enjoy it, and we'll see what happens.

Q. I was just going to ask about that. You probably didn't expect when you were injured to be entering the final round with a chance to get to the TOUR Championship. Does that free you up tomorrow?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Totally. I've been saying all week, I'm just going to try and enjoy this. Entering the week at 67 I think I was, would need a really good week to get to the TOUR Championship, but put myself in an okay spot. Not really sure what the scores are like out there, but it's a golf course where it's very difficult. You can make a bogey pretty quickly. So who knows. But yeah, just going to go out tomorrow and enjoy it, and if it's my last round of the year, so be it.
