CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Joaquin, 3-under 68 today. If we can get some comments on your play.

JOAQUIN NIEMANN: Yeah, it was a good day. The game has been really good the last three days, the last two weeks, so I'm pretty happy the way it's trending. I would have loved to see a few more putts today also going in. I hit so many good putts that they just didn't catch the hole. But other than that, I'm pretty happy in the position I am and hopefully can see more putts drop tomorrow.

Q. You're just three back right now. Talk a little bit about your mindset going into the final round.

JOAQUIN NIEMANN: I mean, it could sound easy, but I think I've got to do what I just did today. I need to keep being patient, keep hitting the shots I've been hitting, and yeah, just keep giving myself some chances for birdie. If it's a good day tomorrow, I'm going to see them drop.
