Quick Quotes

Q. Regular season and Playoffs are over; how do you feel like you have grown and matured either on or off the golf course this year?

VIKTOR HOVLAND: Yeah, I feel like you definitely learn more when you go through struggles compared to when things are going really well. You just kind of keep doing what you're doing and you kind of take it for granted a little bit. When things are not going your way, you have to analyze things and understand what's going on and being real honest about yourself.

So I feel like I've just learned a lot. Feel like I'm a little bit more -- just a little grittier than maybe I was before.

Very happy with the trend of the last couple months of the season. Feel like I'm starting to trend in the right direction. Really just use this off-season to get back to where I want to be for next year.

Q. It looks like finally Scottie is going to win for the seventh time this year on the PGA TOUR. What has he elevated this year compared to years past?

VIKTOR HOVLAND: It's hard to say. I don't know what he's doing day in and day out and I haven't looked at all the stats and stuff. But it just seems like he's basically doing what he did last year, putting probably a little bit more consistently, and when you hit it as good as he does every single week and you start making some putts, you're going to be very difficult to beat. It just seems like he's putting everything together.

Q. What's your schedule looking like in the next -- I imagine you've got a few more, maybe Europe?

VIKTOR HOVLAND: Yeah, I'm not sure yet. I'm kind of still trying to figure some of that stuff out.
