SANDERSON FARMS
CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. Dean, 4-under 68; nice round. If we can get some comments.

DEAN BURMESTER: Yeah, sure. Just solid, really. A couple of soft mistakes, but overall the game feels pretty solid, and I've done it all week. It's kind of one of those golf courses where if you're not in the fairway, you're going to struggle to score. It's about managing what you do when you're not in the fairway because when you're in the fairway there's loads of opportunities. That's kind of my plan and I'm sticking to it, and it's going well.

Q. Five birdies, one bogey today. Any of the birdies stand out?

DEAN BURMESTER: You know, I suppose both par-3s on the back nine, I hit two really good shots into 10 and 13 and made both those putts, which is nice. 10 is not exactly the easiest hole on the golf course, and to hit a 6-iron in exactly how I saw it, and to roll a 10-footer in or whatever it was was great.

Q. Just two shots back right now. Talk about your mindset going into the final round.

DEAN BURMESTER: I'm just going to stick to doing the same thing. Kind of feel like I'm flying under the radar a bit, which is quite nice. I like where I'm at, and coming from behind, that's an easier place to win rather than leading. I'm excited for tomorrow, and keep the same attitude and game plan, and we'll see what happens.
