Quick Quotes

Q. (On his hole-in-one on 17.)

RYAN FOX: I mean, it's such an iconic hole, and it's an intimidating shot. I don't care who you are. You get up there, most of the crowd probably either wants you to make a 1 or hit it in the water, so I'm glad to be on the right side of it in that respect.

When we got to the tee, it was kind of a good number for me. It was a nice gap wedge and you know you've got a little bit of a backstop there, and I was pretty chuffed to look up and see it going down the flag, and obviously a little bit of luck for it to come down the slope and go back in, but I'm certainly not complaining.

Q. At what point did you think it was going in?

RYAN FOX: When it landed and came back, I was like, this has got a chance. I mean, we had enough good shots that a few have a chance every now and again, but they don't go in very often, so it was nice to see one properly go in, and as I said, it's such an iconic hole, and to have that many people there to witness it is pretty cool.
