Quick Quotes

Q. Four times today your match was tied. How much of a grind was it for you out there today?

TYRRELL HATTON: Yeah, it was pretty stressful out there, to be honest. I feel like I played pretty good for most of the day. Obviously I was happy that I didn't drop a shot, so I never gave any holes away. Holed some good putts on the back nine and I'm not going to lie, obviously I was thinking on 16 where he's down left you almost think you're going to have two putts for it.

But I know it's hard not to get ahead of yourself, he played an amazing shot there and in the end I had a little bum squeaker to halve the hole. So, yeah, it was an interesting match.

Q. 2-0 so far puts you in a good position. What do you like about match play?

TYRRELL HATTON: I don't. I find it way more stressful than stroke play. It's definitely a mental battle. It's hard not to, I don't know, I find it more frustrating when I'm playing against someone, yeah, obviously looking at certain bounces and stuff like that, and it's like, How does it bounce that way? But maybe I'm a bit salty there, but happy to get another win anyway.
