Q. Bounceback performance today. Talk about your round. How did you feel about it?

SHANE LOWRY: Yeah, I played good. I played pretty similar to how I did yesterday. I felt like I played pretty solid yesterday. Harold just beat me, played better than me. I thought I had the match sewn up with four to go, and it's amazing this game, this tournament, it's hard to win games. Especially these last four or five holes, anything can happen.

Yeah, I got dragged down the 18th, and thankfully I manage to scrape a win.

Q. What's the mentality going into tomorrow? Got to claw your way back in?

SHANE LOWRY: Yeah, I need to beat Brooks twice tomorrow, so that's going to be quite difficult. But I'm playing good golf, so we'll just see what happens.

Q. You've already seemed like you've had a great time here. We saw you joking with Harold walking off the green yesterday. It seems like you really enjoy this event. Is this something that you'll continue to play in the future?

SHANE LOWRY: Yeah, look, I've never had good success here. I'm not sure -- I don't know, not sure if I love the format. I'd love if it was straight knockout personally. Obviously I'd be home today if it was, but I just think it gives it a bit more bite every day or something.

Yeah, I just try and have as good a week as I can, enjoy myself. To be honest, the way I am this week I just want to keep continuing some good golf and keep my confidence levels quite high going into Augusta, and if I can do something good here at the weekend -- look, it's hard to get out of your group in this tournament. It's hard to do quite well in it. Yeah, if I can do something good in the tournament, all well and good, but I just really want to keep
