Quick Quotes

Q. Assess the round. You didn't have much left today. Talk about that.

GARRICK HIGGO: Yeah, it was weird to come back for just one hole, but yeah, there was a lot of positives this week. In the fourth round I had two doubles, which weren't great, but I hit the ball so much better than I have the last year. A lot of positives going into next week.

Q. Talk about what the positives were and how does the wrist feel?

GARRICK HIGGO: The wrist is still pretty sore, but I can play, and I do rehab after each round for it. I'll be fine. It's just a bone bruise, so it's going to take a while to be completely healed. In my swing, I feel like I've got my draw back. A couple years ago I went to a fade, which completely messed me up. My coach, Sean Foley, and I have gotten in a place where I can consistently start it on my lines left and draw it back. It helps when you've got that.
