Quick Quotes

Q. Got to feel good about the week, a place you've had a lot of success before. Just a few comments about the week.

STEVE STRICKER: Yeah, a good week. Always fun to be here. A little disappointing, I didn't putt my best really. I had some opportunities. Didn't hit it close at times when you have short irons in your hand. But overall, gave myself a chance coming down the stretch, and that's always fun. Hit a couple nice shots on the last few holes and just didn't get it in there like I should have.

All in all, a good week. Fun to be here.

Q. Looks like Bernhard is going to get Hale's 45. Pretty impressive?

STEVE STRICKER: Yeah, it's amazing, isn't it. He continues to amaze us all. He just keeps going, and he stays in shape. He's just incredible, really. 45 wins, and he keeps winning, 65 years old, shot his age this week. I don't know, there's not much else you can say about him. And he's a nice person, too. That's, I think, the coolest part is he's a good guy, a nice guy, and to see the success that he's had is pretty cool.
