Q. Cam, good playing, 66. If we could just get an opening comment on your round.

CAM DAVIS: It was really good. First nine, ten holes really didn't miss a shot and felt like I recovered pretty well from my little stretch through the back nine where things started going a little bit squirrely.

No, it was a solid day. It's been a lot of good golf this week, so I'm looking forward to trying to put as many birdies on the card as I can tomorrow.

Q. How were you able to recover so well from that three-hole stretch you referred to on the back nine and still put together a solid round?

CAM DAVIS: I think it was just a little bit of going through the motions. I think I was going really well and then got a little too comfortable and started just not quite fully committing.

Yeah, I just started going back to what I have been doing and just thinking about it and being a little more intent with it, I guess.

Yeah, just tried to really get into every shot and started committing fully to every single one, and they got a little bit straighter and a little bit closer to the hole again.

No, it was nice to turn that back around and finish on a good note.

Q. I know you've been working really hard trying to get yourself back into this position a little bit more often. How rewarding does it feel to start to see some of that hard work pay off a little bit more?

CAM DAVIS: It's always great to play good golf, just trying to do it a little bit more often, but the good stuff is still in there, which is great, and I'm just trying to bring it out as much as I can.
