Quick Quotes

Q. I'm going to start with you, Wes. It looked like you were having fun out there, especially I love the way to the gallery on the make there on the final hole. That exemplified the fun you were having today, doesn't it?

WESLEY BRYAN: We had a great time. I'll be honest, there were times when we were absolutely lost physically on the golf course, but we kept the vibes high.

Yeah, that was to cap off my -- I think my third birdie in a row on the par-3s.

TREY MULLINAX: Yes, it was.

WESLEY BRYAN: And we kept making some Call of Duty references, specialist bonus engaged on the par-3. When the last one dropped, I waved off all the crowd. Even if they weren't clapping, most of them were, I just wanted to give them the courtesy wave.

Q. I enjoyed it. It was great to see. You talk about the Call of Duty references. That's part of this event, isn't it, Trey, the camaraderie you have with a teammate?

TREY MULLINAX: Yes, absolutely. Wesley, he played great. There was a few times out there today we kind of didn't know where it was going, but I thought we scrambled around really well. We hung in there. Our attitudes were good.

He had to kind of give me a little kick in the butt a couple of times.

WESLEY BRYAN: After your horrible blunder from 130 yards in the middle of the fairway. Only bogey blemish on the card.

TREY MULLINAX: It wasn't my finest moment. But then I made up for it and made the next one.

WESLEY BRYAN: He did, he jarred the next one.

TREY MULLINAX: I jarred it from the rough on the other hole. Yeah, I thought we did a great job. We hung in there. It was good to get the one on the last, and I was glad he made that putt because I really didn't want to putt.

Q. You guys sound like the grill room on league night complaining about each other.

WESLEY BRYAN: Trey's one of my good buds. That's how I kind of gauge my good buds. If I'm able to -- if I'm too nice to you, you should probably be a little bit worried. It means I don't like you too much.
