Quick Quotes

Q. You guys have fun out there today?

LUKE LIST: Did have a good time, yeah. Easy with our playing partners.

Q. What made it so easy and effortless for today's round?

HENRIK NORLANDER: I think we play, we live five minutes from each other, play a lot of golf on off weeks, so we sort of know each other's game. I know we're playing our own ball, but I felt a few times Luke hit good drives where I needed not to hit in the wrong position so I could free him up, and he probably felt the same sometimes.

I just think it's fun. I think we've had a lot of fun so far this week, and it's a change of pace from a regular week.

Q. You mentioned playing together on off weeks. How did the partnership come about? Who asked who coming into the week?

LUKE LIST: I'll let him answer that again.

HENRIK NORLANDER: I've been playing with Alex Noren the last few years and he decided not to play, so I asked Luke, and he said yes. So yeah.

Q. What about each other's games complements each other?

LUKE LIST: Yeah, I mean, I kind of deferred to Henrik and my caddie to kind of pick the strategy a little bit this week, and for me that just frees me up to play a little bit, and I kind of got off to a rough start and Henrik played great the first few holes, and we really ham-and-egged it nicely today. I felt like anytime that he was kind of rolling, I was out of a hole. It was vice versa a little bit a few times, but we were really never out of too many holes, it was just trying to make as many birdies as we could.

Q. Some fun weather projected for tomorrow but also a different format. What are you looking forward to in tomorrow's round?

HENRIK NORLANDER: Yeah, it's a complete different -- growing up in Europe, we played a lot of national team stuff, alternate shot or foursomes we call it in Europe. It's the most fun but probably the most stressful way of playing golf, too. But I think we said it early this week, the key is we both are trying as hard as -- never say sorry, we're just going to try to play golf and try to enjoy it, and it's obviously -- you're playing a little bit more aggressive today, but you're trying to get your partner in a -- it's easy to say, but middle of the greens and just stress-free, stress-free, but you get on a roll in that format, you can shoot low because it's fun. It's really just playing only nine holes.
