Quick Quotes

Q. Could we get some comments from both of you.

VINCENT NORRMAN: It was a great day. Got off to a good start, then we started slowing down a little bit. Then took advantage of the back nine.

Q. Comments on the day?

MATTHIAS SCHWAB: Yeah, I felt the same. 2-under after two was good. I honestly took a backseat and let Vincent do his thing. He was on fire today, which was great to watch.

I made a couple of pars when he was out of position, but overall it was mainly Vincent's work.

Q. Vincent, what was working so well for you today?

VINCENT NORRMAN: I think everything was pretty solid. I guess the back nine was -- kind of blacked out a little bit (laughter). Got some really good chances and didn't miss a putt, it felt like.

Q. Thoughts on tomorrow, final round?

MATTHIAS SCHWAB: Yeah, I'm sure it will be fun. We had a nice, decent round yesterday in the same format, and I think we'll just stick with the same game plan we had yesterday and give it our best.
