Q. It's the Fitzpatricks. You guys got it done in the end after building a great lead going through 11 holes. All of a sudden rally might have set in a little bit, sadly. How did you feel like there the last six or seven holes when things finally started not going your way?

MATT FITZPATRICK: Yeah, it was a struggle. I was doing absolutely zero to help him. Apart from the putt I made on 15 there, I wasn't really providing much support. He was fantastic on the back nine, as he was yesterday as well.

Yeah, I mean, to finish that, you know, I said just give us a chance on the last, and obviously to hit a shot like that, it's nice to give him the easy tap-in there.

Q. There was a couple of best shots out there saying your shot behind 13. How does it feel? Now I have to get past all the bad stuff. PGA TOUR winner, how does it feel?

ALEX FITZPATRICK: I don't know. It won't sink in. I've got a flight for Turkey tonight. Yeah, I'm just -- it's amazing to be to be with him, my mom and dad. Just, yeah, a lot of hard work. I can't believe we've done it.

Q. Most of us will never know, but how does it feel actually to win with your brother? How much more special does it make this?

ALEX FITZPATRICK: I think that's as good as it gets, isn't it?

MATT FITZPATRICK: Yeah, I mean, it's hard to describe.

ALEX FITZPATRICK: He's won a major, so he's --

MATT FITZPATRICK: (Indiscernible) -- the next step. As good as that for sure.

Q. Well, I can tell by the smiles, so thank you for your
