Q. How would you describe the experience the last couple days?

MICHAEL VISACKI: Oh, truly amazing. Never felt like this and hopefully I can continue to feel like this in the near future.

Q. Were you happy with how you played today specifically?

MICHAEL VISACKI: I'm satisfied, yes. Cleaned up the little things that I didn't do so well yesterday. So shooting even par out here, on not an easy golf course, I'm pretty happy.

Q. What do you think is the, specifically the best memory you'll take from this as you go on?

MICHAEL VISACKI: All the love and support that I have gotten through all of this. Everybody cheering me on, telling me great job, thank you. I actually just found out that, before I got here, one of my best buds, his dad's friend was, for the last couple years, thinking about committing suicide, and he saw my story and now it's made him not -- it made him want to go play golf and not even think about the dark times that he's had. So that's really making me cry, almost, that I'm changing people's lives.

Q. Now that you've had a taste of it, how does this motivate you in the future to try and Monday qualify more, get back out here as often as you can?

MICHAEL VISACKI: Yeah, I'm definitely going to try to do a lot more Mondays now, now knowing this experience. It's eye opening and it definitely makes me want to get out here and continue to be out here. This is amazing.

Q. How do you think you might capitalize on this experience?

MICHAEL VISACKI: Pushing me forward in the right direction. Knowing that I do have the game to compete out here, if I can compete with the big guys of the TOUR, and
