Quick Quotes

Q. Great playing today. What was working so well for you today?

VIKTOR HOVLAND: I putted really good today and hit a lot of good iron shots that ended up close to where I didn't have to do a whole lot to make a birdie. Yeah, I did hit some bad iron shots today and I did feel like I struggled to cut it into those right hole locations. But the few bad iron shots that I hit, I was really able to hit some really nice saves and some putts for par.

Q. Your fifth top-5 finish of the season. Looks like you're going to move to No. 3 in the FedExCup standings. How does it feel to put together another solid finish this week and continue your consistent play?

VIKTOR HOVLAND: Yeah, it's cool. Obviously the win at Mayakoba was a lot of fun, but I think -- I shouldn't say I prided myself more, but it's nice to see that validation with the other tournaments as well, the couple of runner-ups and other top-5s and just kind of making sure that I'm playing good golf week in, week out, because that's, I feel like that's a lot more fun than -- obviously getting another win would be very fun -- but just being consistent week in, week out is, yeah, I take a lot of satisfaction from that.
