Q. Great day out here. Hanging out with two of my boys, Stewart Cink and Jason Caron. I just want to say, you guys almost played today like ya'll were a little offended at how Bjorn and Darren Clarke played yesterday. Talk to me about your morning.

STEWART CINK: Well, it was -- I wouldn't say our group generally played like lights out, but it was solid and really evenly meshed. Darren and Thomas are a good team, and international group there is always going to be right at the top of the skillset.

So we didn't load a ton of birdies up, but we were in every hole and I like the way we were looking; trending the right way.

Q. Ham and egging. That's what you're trying to do out there. Wind from a little different direction today and second full day out starting. How were you feeling on the tee today? A lot more comfortable?

JASON CARON: Yeah, a lot more comfortable. Especially yesterday, I noticed it on the first nine with my putter. I could feel like just a little tentative, wasn't really releasing it too well. Then in the afternoon it really started to flow again.

Today I rolled it great. It was nice to come off and make a birdie. That kind of calmed me down as well. I knew I got some power over here, so we were going to be okay.

Q. I need to talk to you about that. Take a little off the driver at the par-4 8th. Talk to me, Stewart.

STEWART CINK: Well, I mean, it was a little in between clubs there but over the green is not a bad place to be. A lot better than short of the green if you've seen what's in front of that thing.

We hit driver, and, yeah, slowed it down a little bit but it was still going to easily be enough to get to the back half of the green and just long.

Where the hole location was was a pretty good place to be, but still didn't win the hole because Darren made a great birdie to halve us.

Q. Yeah, but that being said, I think I know you were a lot more comfortable today. As a show, guy, it's got to be the shoes. We need talk about these, Jason. Show the side.

JASON CARON: So my wife drew these things up.

Q. Turn around.

JASON CARON: It's pretty cool. We that we just had an extra pair of shoes laying around and she did her little marker and felt pretty good over a glass the wine. It was pretty cool.

Q. There were people that thought you bought them like that and she did them. When I said how long did it take what did you tell me?

JASON CARON: Couple glasses of wine.

Q. That's about right. Great morning. Keep it up.

JASON CARON: Thank you.

STEWART CINK: Thank you, Mike.
