Roma, Italia

Iga Swiatek

Mixed Zone

D. COLLINS/I. Swiatek

6-1, 7-5

Q. (Indiscernible) what were you processing on the court today?

IGA SWIA TEK: For sure it hasn't been easy. For sure I'm doing something wrong. So I need to just regroup and kind change some stuff.

I had some advice from the team. I'll just try to do this.

Q. We can see it's obviously difficult for you. Who are the people you lean on for emotional support?

IGA SWIA TEK: Yeah, well, Daria, like everybody from my team. Yeah, we talked and came to some conclusions. So yeah, I'm just going to change my mindset a little bit because...

Q. I saw you mentioned in the article that you sort of feel like you revert to old habits when you're feeling under pressure, expectations. Was that something you felt like happened today at all?

IGA SWIA TEK: I don't know. Well, I think I just wasn't there present to, like, fight and to compete. I focused on mistakes. It's my mistake, and I'm not doing things right.

So yeah, the focus is on the wrong things from my side and I'll try to change that.

Q. Your expectations now going into Roland Garros...

IGA SWIA TEK: Obviously (indiscernible) because I'm not able to play my game. I'll just try to, you know, as I said, change my mindset a little bit, try to regroup and just focus day by day working.

Q. Other people have had great success at particular Grand Slams. Even if they come into them not playing great, they say they have a certain feeling.

IGA SWIA TEK: I don't care what other people had.

BNP PARIBAS

There's no point to compare.

Q. Do you get a certain feeling when you come to Roland Garros?

IGA SWIA TEK: It doesn't matter what things I get. Every year is different, so... Doesn't matter.
