THE MODERATOR: What did you think made the difference out there today?

ADRIAN MANNARINO: Yeah, I don't really know. I've been making couple mistake in the key moment. Yeah, at the end of the set when the match was getting tight, he's been more consistent than me I think.

He pushed me to my limit. I just couldn't make it. I feel at some point I need to rally my game a little bit and didn't make it. Yeah, couple of easy mistake and then the match goes completely on his way.

Yeah, was close.
