Press Conference

BORNA GOJO: Yeah, you know, obviously if you looked at the match before it started, you would think Argentina was the favorite. So, yeah, a bit surprised that they lost.

Still, it's Davis Cup, anything can happen. I still believe Croatia can go through with all three wins hopefully. Borna is still playing. I have full faith in him to win, and then doubles.

Yeah, we just focus on today still. But, yeah, a bit surprised by that result. It's Davis Cup, so...

THE MODERATOR: What do you take from this match? Are you happy, not happy with your performance? How did you see Musetti's level today?

BORNA GOJO: Obviously, I'm not thrilled about my game. On the other hand, I think he played a really good match from his side. I can't remember he missed one ball really that was an unforced error.

Credit to him. Really slow conditions. It's really hard for me to make any kind of a difference. Power doesn't really do much here.

Yeah, just credit to him. That's it.

THE MODERATOR: How did you enjoy the atmosphere? I know you come from college tennis. You expressed already this is sometimes like a kindergarten compared to that in terms of reaction to the public. Did it have any impact on you?

BORNA GOJO: Yeah, no, it was actually so fun to play. Good for the Italian people to fill the arena. It's also a joy for me to play. Doesn't matter to me if they're cheering obviously for their player.

Yeah, so fun. Really there was nothing, like, bad. It was all nice, like, cheering. So, yeah, it was a great atmosphere. It was a privilege to play. I really enjoyed it.

THE MODERATOR: Questions, please.

Q. Do you think Sweden's victory against Argentina is leveling up or making it more complicated in this group?
