7-5, 2-6, 6-3

Italy - 2

Argentina - 1

THE MODERATOR: We will start with a couple questions in English.

How happy are you with this performance today and giving another point to Argentina?

MAXIMO GONZALEZ: Really happy. You can't imagine how happy I am. I think we did a great match with Horacio. We still have a chance to qualify tomorrow, but is important I think we go with 2-3 with a little smile. We have the chance tomorrow, and then we need to prepare and try to do as today. Leave everything on court.

THE MODERATOR: Horacio, tomorrow probably you will be facing the toughest of the doubles, players that you have in this group. Or you don't see it like that?

HORACIO ZEBALLOS: I see every match like a final. Actually the Italians beat this team, but of course I know them, I know them a lot. I already play with them like many, many times. For example, in the final in Wimbledon and they are amazing. They are a huge team.

But we are also a good team. And this is Davis Cup. You never know. First we are so happy about today, about the level that we played today. Tomorrow first we come. Hopefully the guys win 2-3, and then going to be another kind of match.

It's a long way until tomorrow, and we are on court. Of course we know it's a really, really good team. But we need to think in ourselves, trying to keep doing what we
