THE MODERATOR: Horacio, overall, Argentina, a very, very tough group in the Davis Cup Finals. What do you take from here?

HORACIO ZEBALLOS: I take sadness. Was a really tough moment for us today, because we had hope. We had good players, but as you said, it was a really tough group.

What can I say? We will come back. Hopefully next year we do okay again when we have to play first, and hopefully we make Finals again, right?

What can I say? It was a really nice week outside the court. Yeah, nothing else to say. We are really sad at this moment.
