Q. Can you talk a little bit about your season because you're beating Barty, beating Osaka, getting to the semis in Australia but having an injury. Are you feeling 100 percent now, and how would you evaluate your season so far?

KAROLINA MUCHOVA: Well, I think for the struggles I have with injuries this year, it's been pretty great season for me. The positive thing from today is I'm actually feeling pretty good now, and I can prepare for upcoming tournaments, so I take this pretty positive from today.

Yeah, start of the season was great for me, then I had this tear in the belly, and it took a while to be fit for another tournament, so I had some breaks, and always coming back. I don't feel -- I mean, I feel pretty good on the court for that I'm not playing many tournaments yet this season..

Q. What's your expectation for grass season? I remember you were reaching quarters in Wimbledon, so what's your expectations for next tournaments?

KAROLINA MUCHOVA: Well, I wasn't thinking about it. I don't have any expectations yet. I'll try to prepare. I'm planning to go to Berlin and to prepare there well for Wimbledon. I like to play on grass. We missed it last year, so I'm looking forward and will try to do my best.
