Q. When you were talking about your decision to come to BC to transfer here, you mentioned that your goal in coming to BC was to get to a National Championship. Now that you've done that, what are the emotions? What are the feelings surrounding that for you?

RACHEL HALL: I mean, it's definitely surreal. It's something that I've dreamed about my whole life, but I've dreamed about winning a National Championship, so we have another game to play.

Q. You've had a big season all year. You've been a rock in goal. But to show up to big like this on the national stage, to have your best game of the season, what goes into that? How do you feel when that happens, and how do you get yourself mentally prepared for this sort of game?

RACHEL HALL: That's something that I attribute totally to my teammates and my coaches. I didn't think that I had the best season up to this point, but they stuck with me, and they knew that when we got to this stage that I'd be prepared, and they really prepared me well. That's all them.

Q. What were you seeing out there that allowed you to make all those saves? You were doing the splits a few times, just made some incredible saves.

RACHEL HALL: That's something that me and Billy Bitter have been working on lately, just being light on my feet, tracking the ball and really getting behind it, so that's Billy.
